Steve Bluestein shared his experience with Museum delivery of their latest car. If you decide to do it, some things to expect: a long wait, information overload after listening to the Corvette rep explain IN DETAIL every feature of your car (but don't plan on remembering much when you go to drive it off the lot), and something about sticker shock $$$$ Driving home he and Stella experienced rain, snow, and...a sand storm around AZ. And yea! to Stella, she helped drive home!

Closing remarks , then Adjourn meeting                      at 6:40pm
